Japanese Believed Threatening Occupation Of French Indo-China: Fate Will Depend Particularly On Attitude Of United States

China War

THE THIRD ANNIVERSARY

CHUNGKING, June 19 (Central)—The Overseas Affairs Board of the Kuomintang Central Executive Committee has drafted a set of measures for the people at home and abroad to commemorate the third anniversary of the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese hostilities on July 7.

Mass commemorative meetings and memorial services for fallen heroes and civilian victims of the war will be held. Telegrams to pay respects to the Chairman of the National Government and the Generalissimo, to comfort the frontline soldiers, the guerrillas behind Japanese lines and the people in the Northeastern provinces and in Japanese-occupied areas, and to denounce Wang Ching-wei and his underlings will be despatched.

An enlarged publicity campaign will be launched. All Chinese newspapers are to issue a supplement, and all periodicals a special number, in commemoration of the occasion. Speeches and radio broadcasts with the anniversary as the principal theme will be made, while pamphlets and handbills will be distributed.

Visits to families of soldiers will be made.

The crowning event of the day will be the launching of a movement for offering planes to the Government. The movement will last until October 10, China's Independence Day.

STRUGGLE FOR ICHANG

CHUNGKING, June 19 (Reuters)—The struggle for the possession of Ichang is continuing, according to the latest Chinese field dispatches received here.

100 PER CENT. TAX ON WAR PROFITS

MELBOURNE, June 19 (Reuters)—The Federal Labour Party conference here pledged itself "willingly to bear the burdens imposed under the interests of Australia's security and human liberty."

The conference approved of complete participation in the Empire air plan and the reinforcement of Australia's force abroad on a voluntary basis for participation in Europe as circumstances arise, having regard to the necessity of the defence of Australia.

It also urged Government control of Australia's entire resources and a 100 per cent. tax on war profits.

RICE EXPORT BANNED

The following notification was published in the Gazette Extraordinary issued yesterday:—"I, the Controller of Trade, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by regulation 50 of the Defence Regulations, 1939, with the consent of His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government hereby prohibit the export except by licence under my hand or under the hand of an officer of my department, on my behalf, of rice."—W. Hamilton, Controller of Trade.

Attempted Advance May Be Made From Nanning

CHUNGKING, June 19 (Reuters)—CHINESE CIRCLES ARE CONSIDERABLY PERTURBED over the recent Japanese broadcast accusing the French Indo-China of permitting the transportation of arms, ammunition, petrol and motor trucks into China.

It is generally thought here that the Japanese are threatening to occupy French Indo-China by taking advantage of the helpless condition of France. This speculation seems to be substantiated by recent reports of Japanese concentrations on the Island of Hainan and also at Nanning, in south Kwangsi.

Well-informed circles believe that Japanese forces may attempt to advance into Indo-China from Nanning, supported by naval action off the Indo-Chinese coast.

These circles say, it is obvious that the French forces in Indo-China are insufficient to cope with such an eventuality. The fate of Indo-China, it is thought, will depend on the attitude of the United States and Britain, but particularly America.

The Chinese Cabinet discussed the latest developments in the European situation at a meeting held yesterday.

4-POINT REPRESENTATIONS BY JAPAN TO GERMANY AND ITALY

TOKYO, June 19 (Reuters)—Questioned regarding the report, which appeared in the Yomiuri Shimbun yesterday, to the effect that the Japanese Government had decided to request Germany and Italy to pay full respects to Japan's position in East Asia, particularly in reference to French Indo-China, a Foreign Office spokesman, at the press conference today, said he was not in a position to say anything in that connexion.

This morning the Yomiuri Shimbun reported that the Japanese Government had decided to make a four-point representation to Germany and Italy with regard to Indo-China, pointing out:

Firstly, the Japanese Government is now paying serious attention to the transportation of arms to the Chinese Government through Indo-China;

Secondly, Japan feels great concern over the maintenance of the economic status quo in Indo-China from which country she imports tin, iron, rice and other important materials;

Thirdly, Japan cannot remain indifferent to any change in the status quo of Indo-China due to geographical proximity; and Fourthly, Germany and Italy should pay full respects to Japan's position in East Asia as a stabilising power and to manifest the same friendly attitude toward Japan in the question of Indo-China as in the Netherlands East Indies issue.

The spokesman was asked whether the German and Italian Ambassadors in Tokyo had already been approached in that connexion, but he replied in the negative.

SERIOUS ATTENTION
He pointed out that the Japanese Government is paying serious attention to the question of Indo-China for strategic purposes.

most important stage, the spokesman said, Indo-China had become the only important route for supply of arms to the Chungking Government. Therefore, Japan is concentrating its efforts to eliminate this route.

The spokesman said that Japan's position in the East Indies as a stabilising power was early mentioned in diplomatic documents as early as the first Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

SEVEN ENEMY AIRCRAFT SHOT DOWN IN RAIDS OVER EASTERN ENGLAND

Midnight Warning On The Yorkshire Coast

LONDON, June 19 (Reuters)—The Air Ministry and Ministry for Home Security announce that enemy aircraft carried out bombing raids in districts in eastern England last night.

Air raid warnings were sounded and some four hours elapsed before the "all raiders passed" signals could be given.

Anti-aircraft defences were in action and fighter aircraft went up to engage the enemy. Seven enemy aircraft were shot down.

Bombs were dropped in a number of districts in East Anglia, Lincolnshire and Yorkshire and 11 civilians are known to have been killed and 14 injured.

Most of the casualties occurred in one locality where the bombs fell on a row of houses. No severe damage was done to any military objective.

After being engaged by British fighters, a German bomber crashed in Essex in flames last night.

Another enemy plane crashed on the Norfolk coast after British fighters had gone up.

Terms Stated To Be Very Severe But No Details Available

THE FRENCH CABINET MET AT NINE O'CLOCK YESTERDAY MORNING UNDER PRESIDENT LEHUN TO DISCUSS THE GERMAN REPLY TO MARSHAL PETAIN'S REQUEST FOR TERMS OF PEACE.

THE CABINET APPOINTED PLENIPOTENTIARIES FOR THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS.

The German terms, according to a Reuter message, are stated to be very severe but details are not available.

The terms were transmitted to the Spanish Ambassador to France, who is still with the French Government in Bordeaux. The French Cabinet meeting took note of the communication of the Reich Government transmitted by the Spanish Envoy.

In this communication the German Government expressed its readiness to inform the French Government of the conditions for cessation of hostilities as soon as the names of the French plenipotentiaries were made known.

The Reich Government will then determine the time and place of negotiations.

LONDON, June 19 (BWS)—The firmness displayed in the Prime Minister's speech and the frankness with which the position in which Britain finds herself was treated are unanimously welcomed by the British press.

The Times, after summing up the "balance sheet" which it points out "took no account of any further contribution the joint cause may receive from the French forces," states that the result shows "we are still strategically solvent."

After considering the prospect of invasion from the sea and reiterating the difficulties which face the would-be invader in that direction, The Times discusses the threat of landing from the air.

The Times says that in order to effect this it is necessary, as the Prime Minister said, first to destroy the British Air Force. "Despite the present great superiority of numbers the course of the air war in France suggests he has little chance of accomplishing this."

The ascendancy of our airmen over the adversaries has been one of the most indisputable facts proved in action during the past months. Our relative strength stands higher now than at any time since the outbreak of war and is steadily improving.

Fighting on the defensive over our own country we shall be able to bring to bear a much larger proportion of that strength than we ever did in France. Nor need our tactics be wholly defensive. The power of the R.A.F. to strike hard at military objectives in Germany has been abundantly demonstrated.

DEFINITE PROGRESS

"No doubt the struggle for mastery in the air will dominate the whole war for the remainder of this summer. We have to face the fact that we still fight against heavy odds. But in no department of the war is it more certain that every day of successful defence means definite progress towards the first material equality, then superiority and, at last, complete victory."

Drawing a parallel between the meeting of the dictators in Munich

POPULATION'S PART

The Daily Telegraph pays attention to the part to be played by the whole population in the present phase of the war. "We use to speak of the soldier's battle. Every man and every woman have their part in it. Of each and all the utmost exertion and vigilance are required."

Only by the discipline, energy, public spirit and commonsense of the whole people will victory be won. The call of the National Council of Labour to all workers to do their utmost in every field of production has given the right lead."

CANADIAN PILOTS READY NOW

OTTAWA, June 19 (Reuters)—Mr. Duncan, acting Deputy Minister for Defence for the Air, in a speech here declared that the first pilots, graduating from the Empire Air Training Scheme, are proceeding overseas immediately. He added that thousands of young men are being called up for service with the Air Force.

LAWN BOWLS NOTES:

KOWLOON BREAK "DUCK" AGAINST RECREIO "B"

Recreio "A" Collect Two Points From The Docks

BY "NO. 1"

Kowloon Cricket Club scored their first points of the season on Saturday, beating Recreio "B" by 13 shots. They were up on two rinks, Fincher having an easy time against Noronha to win by 13 shots, while Basto had a close fight with Kern.

Basto led up to the 19th head but Kern scored a two on the 28th head and a four on the last head to win by four shots.

J. J. Basto ran away with 15-4 against Goodwin up to the ninth head but the K.C.C. four crept up to 20-24, losing by four shots.

Basto and his front men played very consistently to beat the strong K.C.C. rink.

Civil Servants were at home to the Craigengower Cricket Club and were beaten by 20 shots. Rosset had an easy win over McGowan who was down 12 shots when the game came to end. Omar had a shaky start against Strange but a lead of 11-7 on the eighth head gave him an easy time afterwards and he won by eight shots.

Basta led Jones on the 14th head but conceded 2, 4, 1, 1, and 2 on the following five heads to trail 21-17. A couple of two's on the last two heads gave him a tie.

RECREIO WINS AGAIN

The Champions collected another two points, comfortably, at the cost of Kowloon Docks. The home team were up on all rinks. Cullen's 100 per cent record falling by the board. Alves, who won by 18 shots, having the distinction of being the first skip to down him. F. X. Silva had strong opposition from Kempson but managed to win by three shots.

GELLING CONSISTENT

The Hongkong Football Club have yet to break their "duck." Last Saturday they lost by 23 shots to Kowloon Bowling Green Club at Austin Road.

Sheriff did not find much difficulty against Gill and won by 14 shots. Robertson was up by four shots.

I understand he played a brilliant game throughout the afternoon and was well supported by his front men, particularly by his number two. Gelling is playing a very consistent game this year.

Bebbington was leading 12-11 but did not score anything afterwards and lost the game by 13 shots at the end.

INDIANS WIN

The Indians had a runaway victory over the Police Recreation Club, winning on all rinks. Dallah was the outstanding player of his rink and at one time led Orem 24-1. The final score was 33-9. There was not much between Abbas and Fender before tea but the Indian rink was more consistent and won by 11 shots.

Of the Fender's four Cameron played a very good game. Carey had the better of Minu up to the 15th head but Minu scored on four of the last six heads to win by 27-19.

MOVEMENT DURING DARK HOURS

Between 30 minutes after sunset and 30 minutes before sunrise, movement is prohibited in the following areas to all craft.

(a) Area "D" in the Tathons Channel.

(b) Area "G" in the East Lama Channel.

(c) Areas "E," "F" and "G" in the Kap Shui Mun and Channels east and west of Chung Hwa Island.

When the "Port Closed" signals are hoisted at the Harbour Office, and/or in the Naval Dockyard, all craft under way are to proceed immediately to the nearest safe berth inside the harbour limits and remain there until these signals are lowered. The "Port Closed" signals consist of 3 red balls by day and 3 Red Lights by Night.

Orders issued by Patrol vessels are to be obeyed.

A careful look-out must be kept for drifting mines and any sighted should be reported to Patrol craft, Police craft, or the Naval or Harbour authorities.

INDEPENDENT MINEFIELDS

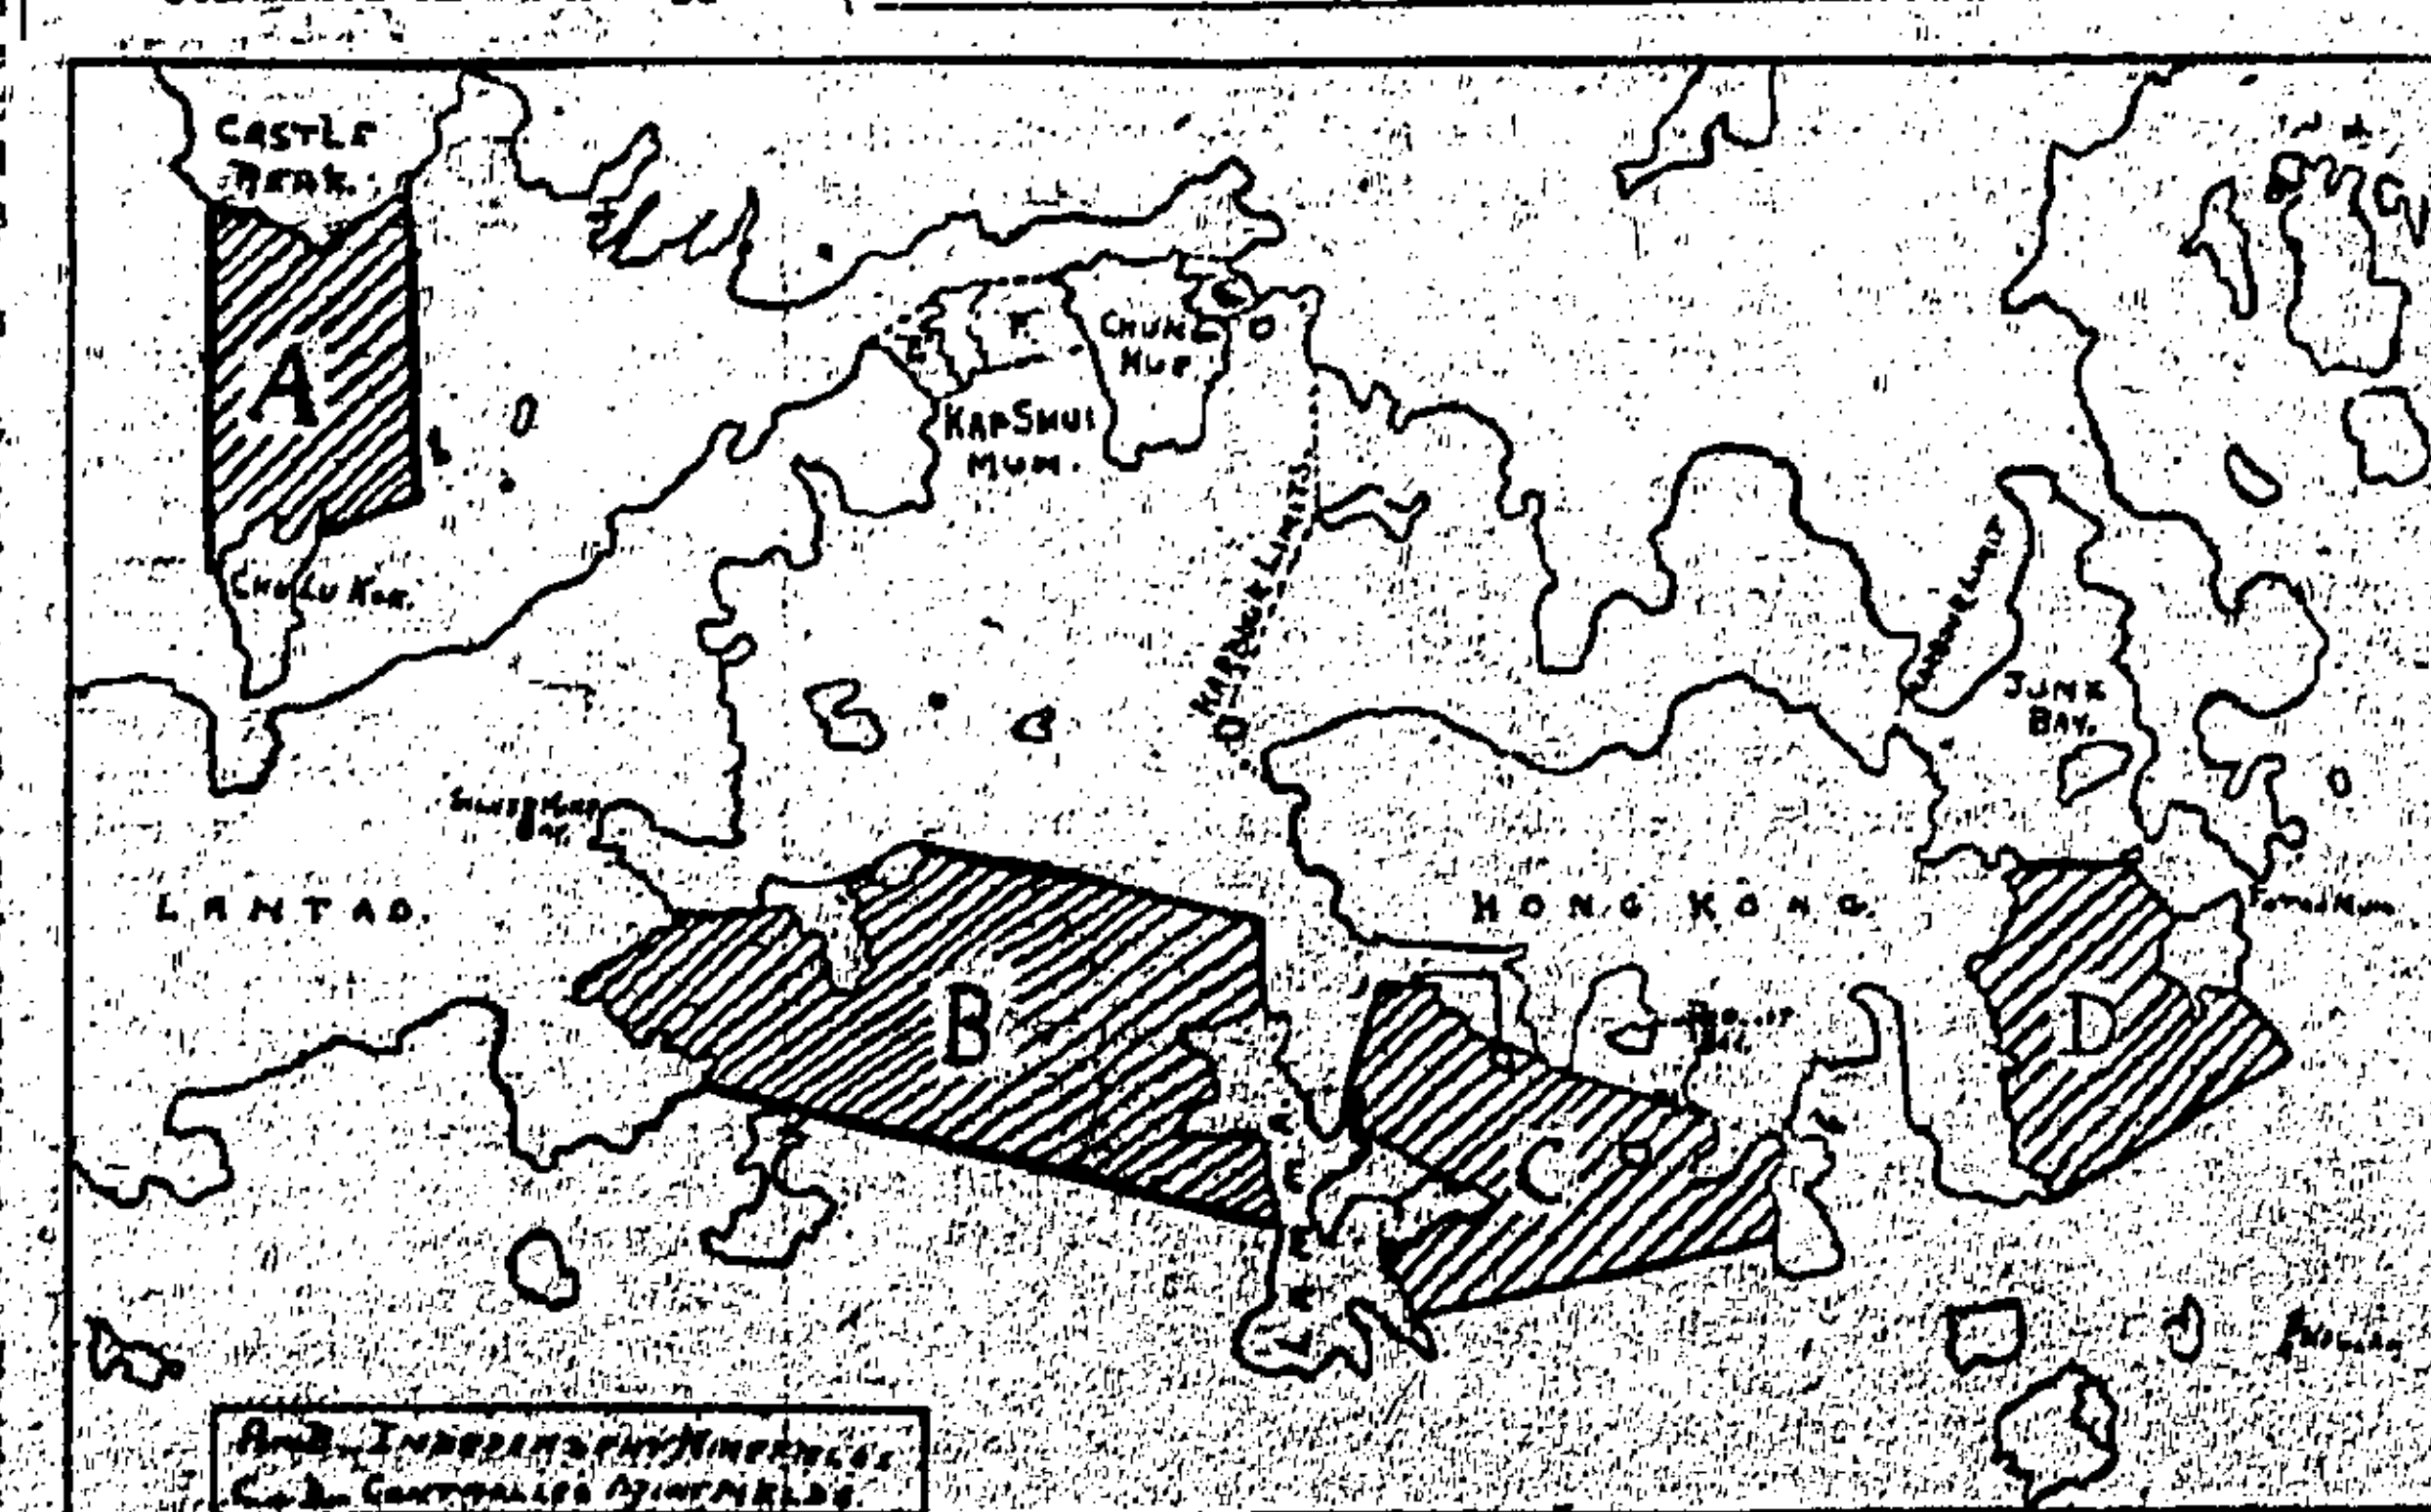

These are contained in the areas marked "A" and "B" on the map. Under no circumstances should any craft large or small enter these areas. The approximate limits of these dangerous areas are marked by Flag and Light Buoys, but no reliance can be placed on finding these buoys in position.

CONTROLLED MINEFIELDS

These are contained in the areas marked "C" and "D" on the map. No vessel is allowed to anchor or flap in these areas.

Vessels constructed of wood may pass through these Areas unless forbidden to do so by a patrol boat, but those constructed of iron and steel are only allowed to enter these areas when they have obtained special permission from the Naval authorities. One exception to this rule is that small craft constructed of iron and steel are allowed to cross the north-eastern corner of area "D" when proceeding to or from Joss House Bay (See paragraph 8). In doing so they must keep as close as possible to Jak Chau (Slope Island). Special arrangements are made to render the Controlled minefields.

ROYAL SCOTS HOLD FIRST SWIMMING GALA

Splendid Exhibition By Wilfred Lawrence

A spacious open air pool—packed stands—beautiful moonlight and delightful swing music by the Royal Scots band—under such ideal conditions and inspiring surroundings it was no small wonder that an aquatic team from the Victoria Recreation Club gave a very creditable performance at the first swimming gala held by the Royal Scots at their Pool last night.

Although the programme comprised mostly of handicap events, exhibition swimming and diving, keen competition was nevertheless witnessed.

In the 100 yards breast stroke, E. M. Marques, former Colony title holder, did remarkably well to gain first place considering that he has just recovered from a fractured arm.

Wilfred Lawrence, the Colony swimming champion and holder of several records gave a fine demonstration of his prowess in the "crawl."

GOOD TIME

In the 100 yards free style event, D. Hutchinson, a coming champion, returned the remarkably fine time of 59 seconds which is only 1.1/5 secs. behind the Colony record.

In the diving event, E. A. Rosa and S. Lee, both of Victoria Recreation Club, evoked rounds of applause from the spectators by the poise, grace and perfection of some of the most difficult dives.

CHUNG HWA DESERVED WIN AGAINST "H.B."

Baseball Fans Provided With Fist-Fight

BY R.O.Y.

A large number of baseball enthusiasts were well rewarded for their long journey to Carroll Hill, last Saturday, when the Hongkong Brewers and Chung Hwa staged a fiery seven inning contest that was embellished with several arguments, a protest and an apparently fierce but actually harmless fist fight, before Chung Hwa emerged victorious by the narrow margin of 5 tallies to 4.

The winners fully deserved their surprise win as they out-hit the Brewers by the wide margin of 9 safeties to 3, committed but two bobbles as compared to the losers' three, and pilfered 9 sacks to the opposition's 4.

Both hurlers, Jesse Arculli and Bill Chang, showed excellent control but honours went to Chang as he held the heavy hitting Brewers to three scattered singles.

No extra base hits were registered by the Chinese boys for whom Hank Chang topped the averages with two bingles in as many times at bat. Bill Chang and Nip Lum also garnered a brace of bingles apiece but made more trips to the plate.

"Granpop" Leung gave a flashy display at the initial sack while Richard Chung did some fancy fly-shagging at left field.

"SOUL" FINISH

For the Brewers, George Souza walked twice and singled once to score each time he got on base. Incidentally, stealing three or the four sacks pilfered by his team. Henry Ali and O. Arculli connected for the Brewers' other safeties while Stan and Dave Leonard went hitless for the first time in many outings.

The game finished on a sour note when the Brewers completed the game under protest, on the grounds that umpire Wilson called Dave Leonard safe and then did not allow the run to count which he found that Slim Arculli, who had fanned on the same play, was the third out.

Advancing an alternative reason for his protest, Manager Hal Wing Lee claims that the umpire had no right to call a ball on Arculli when the latter did not pitch to the batter after having been allowed only three warm-up throws. Hal says that because his pitcher had not had sufficient warming up, the batter made a hit which, it is interesting to note, came after Arculli had pitched two strikes and a ball to one batter.

This happened in the last half of the sixth and, as the Chinese did not score after this incident, it is difficult to appreciate how it made any difference to the game.

FOX'S HOMER

Although the standard of play was not high, the close scoring made the Hongkong Baseballers' Royal Engineers clash, on Sunday morning, quite interesting. "Doc" Moithen gave all of his second stringers a run and started "Smudge" Smith on the mound to allow the Sappers to finish only one tally behind with the final score at 6-5. Johnny Alvares relieved Smith in the fourth frame and he had his benders in good working order in striking out four of the opposing hitters.

Gillespie made an auspicious debut, clotting two doubles for a perfect average. "Doc" Moithen also garnered a two-bagger but the longest hit went to the Sappers for whom Honest Tom Fox belted a round-tripper to left field.

Taylor was given a trial behind the plate in the fourth frame and, impressed with his powerful pegging to second, that soon discouraged the Club base stealers from taking any chances.

"MINS" WIN EASILY

The U.S.S. Mindanao had everything their own way against the South China aggregation to win by twelve clear tallies. The Southern Chinese showed encouraging improvement over that of their previous outing and should have avoided the paintbrush but for some poor base-running by Sek. Kwan connected for a double that robbed Tony Mascavage and Sid Powiawski of the honour of pitching the first no-hit-no-run game of the season. The last named has now been transferred to the Mindanao and will probably be the battle-wagon's starting hurler for the rest of the campaign. He's certainly going to be bad news for the other pennant contenders.

HALT CALLED TO REFUGEES

LONDON, June 18 (Reuter).—Halt was called to the tragic progress of the French refugees on their way south by Minister Pomaret, broadcasting last night.

In the name of the Government he ordered all civilians to remain where they are and added that safety as well as food supplies and medical services are assured everywhere. On the other hand roads are not places for a great people who do not wish to die.

Orders had been given to the military authorities, he said, to put an immediate stop to any departure of the population.

THE EUROPEAN GANGSTER

The Philadelphia Inquirer (June 1) condemning the Nazi invasion of Holland and Belgium, writes: "The gangster of Europe has struck again. For the moment the sympathies of America will mainly go out towards the most recent victims of Hitler's thugery. The complete detestation in which he and his Germany are held will merely be strengthened and solidified. In face of this new manifestation of ill-gotten, ill-used power, we in the United States can hardly do less than look to our own defences and measure our own weaknesses."

CIVILIANS KILLED IN DUNKIRK

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—It is announced that 125 civilians were killed and 81 wounded in aiding the Royal Navy to remove the B.E.F. and French army from Dunkirk.

Four of the men killed and two wounded were civilian volunteers, and the rest were members of the Merchant Navy.

In making this announcement the Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty once again expressed the Admiralty's profound admiration for these men's spirit and courage.

Very Dark Breeze

"Kindly rest on your oars, Timothy. That contraption is getting you nowhere. And it squeaks. And the Eton Boating Song is not in the key of D."

"What's up, Peter? Got a head?"

"Like a gasometer. Very painful. And that noise you're making goes through it like a pneumatic drill."

"Wasn't I on the warpath by your side? And look at me—no more hangover than an innocent little child."

"Well, it's not natural. It just proves that the Devil looks after his own."

"I look after myself, old son. Last night I took a sizeable slug of Rose's Lime Juice before hitting the hay. That's how to kill off the aftermath of alcohol."

"You wouldn't lead me up the garden, Timothy?"

"Peter, you wrong me. I've seen the light and I'm passing on the tip."

"Then, if you will kindly step ashore, we will seek out a vendor of Rose's. It's time I fell into good habits."

FAILURE TO WITHDRAW FROM BELGIUM COST FRENCH VERY HEAVILY IN MEN

DELAY THREW WHOLE OF THE B.E.F. OUT OF ACTION FOR CRITICAL TIME

LONDON, June 18 (Reuter)—The House of Commons was packed full yesterday when Mr. Churchill made what was regarded as the most important speech of the war, and gave a dramatic account of the events which led to France's approach to Germany to end the hostilities.

Mr. Churchill said, "I spoke the other day of the colossal military disaster which occurred when the French High Command failed to withdraw the northern armies from Belgium at the moment when they knew that the French Front had decisively been broken at Sedan and on the Meuse."

"This delay entailed the loss of 15 or 16 French divisions, and threw out of action, for that critical period, the whole British Expeditionary Force."

BATTLE OF FRANCE
"Our Army and 120,000 French troops, indeed, were rescued by the British Navy from Dunkirk, but only with the loss of all their cannons, vehicles and modern equipment. This loss inevitably took some weeks to repair, and in the first two of those weeks the battle of France was lost."

"When we consider the heroic resistance made by the French army at heavy odds in this battle (cheers) and the enormous losses inflicted upon the enemy, and the evident exhaustion of the enemy, it may well be thought that those 25 divisions of best troops, best trained and equipped, might have turned the scale."

WEYGAND HANDICAPPED
"However, General Weygand had to fight without them. Only three British divisions or their equivalent, were able to stand in line with their French comrades. They have suffered severely but they have fought well (cheers). We sent every man we could to France as fast as we could re-equip and transport their formations."

"I am not reciting these facts for the purpose of recrimination."

POSITION EXPLAINED
"Let the account I have given of these very large forces should raise the question why they did not take part in the great battle for France. I must make it clear that apart from the divisions training and organising at home, only 12 were equipped to fight upon a scale which justified their having been sent abroad."

"They were fully up to the number which the French had been led to expect would be available in France in the ninth month of the war."

"Our forces at home will, of course, steadily increase every week."

"An invasion of Great Britain would require the transportation across the seas of hostile armies upon a very large scale. After they had been so transported they would have to be continually maintained with all the mass of munitions and supplies required for a continuous battle, as continuous battle it would be."

OFFER TO MUSSOLINI
"Here is where we come to the Navy."

"After all we have the Navy! (Cheers)."

"Some people seem to forget that. We must remind them. For more than 30 years, I have been concerned in discussions about the possibility of an overseas invasion."

"I took the responsibility on behalf of the Admiralty at the beginning of the last war of allowing all the regular troops to be sent out of the country although our territorial had only just been called up and were quite untrained."

"Italy is also coming to gain sea superiority in these waters. If that is seriously intended, I can only say that we shall be delighted to offer Mussolini a safeguarded passage through the Straits of Gibraltar in order that he may play the part he aspires to."

THE ITALIAN NAVY
"There is genuine curiosity in the British Fleet to find out whether the Italians are up to the level at which they were in the last war. (Laughter) or whether they have fallen off at all (Renewed laughter)."

"Therefore it seems to me that as far as a sea-borne invasion on a great scale is concerned we are far more capable of meeting it today than we were at many periods during the last war and during early months of this war before our other troops were trained and while the B.E.F. were abroad and are still abroad."

"The Navy has never pretended to be able to prevent raids by bodies of 5,000 or 10,000 men flung suddenly across and thrown ashore at several points on the coast on dark nights or foggy mornings."

"The efficacy of sea-power, especially under modern conditions, depends on the invading force being of a large size. It has to be of a large size in view of our military strength to be of any use. And when it is of a large size, the Navy has something they can meet."

OUR MINEFIELDS
"We must remember that even five divisions, however lightly equipped, would require 200 to 250 ships and with modern air reconnaissance it would not be easy to equip such an Armada, marshal it, and conduct it across the sea without any powerful naval force to escort it."

"And there would be a very great possibility that it would be intercepted long before it reached the coast and that the men would be drowned or blown to pieces with their equipment while trying to land."

"We also have a great system of minefields which were recently strongly reinforced. Through these minefields we alone know the channels."

"If the enemy tries to sweep passages through these minefields it will be the task of the Navy to destroy his mine-sweepers and any other forces employed to protect them."

NOVEL TREACHERIES
"There ought to be no difficulty in this owing to our great superiority at sea."

"These are regular, well-tested and well-proved arguments on which we have relied during many years in recent wars."

"But the question is whether there are any new methods by which these solid assurances can be circumvented?"

"Odd as it may seem, some attention has been given to this by the Admiralty (Laughter) whose prime duty and responsibility is to destroy any large sea-borne expedition before it reaches or at the moment it reaches these shores."

"It would not be useful to go into details."

"They might even suggest ideas to other people that they had not thought of and they would not be likely to give any of their real ideas in exchange."

"All I will say is that undivided vigilance and mind searching must be devoted to the subject because the enemy is crafty, cunning and full of novel treacheries and stratagems."

SUPERIOR AIR FORCE

"The House may rest assured that the utmost ingenuity is being displayed and the utmost imagination is being evoked by a large number of competent officers, who are well-trained and thoroughly up-to-date, to measure and counteract novel possibilities of which many are suggested, some are absurd but some are by no means utterly irrational."

"But we have a very powerful Air Force which has proved itself far superior in quality, both in men and in the many types of machines, to what we have met so far in the numerous fierce air battles which have been fought."

"In France, where we were at a considerable disadvantage in exposing many machines on the ground in aerodromes, we were accustomed to inflict a loss of 'from two and two-and-a-half to one.'"

"In the fighting at Dunkirk, which was a sort of No-Man's Land, we undoubtedly beat the German Air Force and gained mastery of the local air inflicting a loss on the enemy of three of four to one."

"Anyone who looks at the photographs, published a week or so ago at the embarkation, on seeing the masses of troops assembled on the beach forming an ideal target for hours at a time must realise that this, re-embarkation would not have been possible unless the enemy had resigned all hope of recovering air superiority at that point."

GREAT ADVANTAGES

"In defence of this Island the advantages of the defence will be very great and we shall hope to improve upon the fate of three or four to one which we realised in Dunkirk."

"In addition to all the injured machines and their crews which get down safely—and a surprisingly large number of injured machines and men do get down safely in modern air fighting—will in this attack fall on friendly soil and live to fight another day. Whereas all the injured enemy machines and their complements will be total losses as far as the war is concerned."

"During the great battle in France, we gave very powerful and continuous aid to the French Army both by fighters and by bombers. But in spite of every kind of pressure we never would allow the entire metropolitan

UNFORESEEN POWER

"This decision was painful but it was also right because the fortunes in the battle in France could not have been decisively affected even if we had thrown in our entire fighter force."

"The battle was lost by an unforeseen power of the armed columns and by the very

"How I get better personal movies"

by Joseph Valentine, A.S.C.
DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY, UNIVERSAL PICTURES CORP.

"GOOD CAMERA—GOOD MOVIES: That is the first step. You can't get good movies unless you have a good camera. I use a palm-size Filmo. Preference for Filmo is natural in my case, because Filmo is made by Bell & Howell, who make the professional studio equipment we use in Hollywood. Years of experience with this equipment make me feel that anything with the Bell & Howell name on it is as fine as human skill can create."

"MUST YOU BE AN EXPERT?—NO! Filmo makes it almost unbelievably easy to get good movies. Just press the button—what you see, you get!... in color or black-and-white, inside or out of doors, in slow motion, too, if you want it. Frankly, that little Filmo 8 is a wonder. It gives you everything you need—extra speeds, device for animating titles and cartoons, provision for special lenses and accessories. Your skill won't outgrow it. And you can take all the movies you want—they're as inexpensive as snapshots. And now for a good show..."

"GOOD SHOW—good movies deserve to be shown with a Filmo Projector. The Filmo 8 Projector being used here provides 400- or 500-watt illumination that does justice to good pictures—shows them clearly and brilliantly up to six feet wide. No bells to slip or wear."

POSSESSION OF SEDITION PUBLICATION: H.K. INDIAN POLICEMAN SENTENCED AT SESSIONS

First Conviction Since Outbreak Of War

STRUGGLE ON PRAYA DESCRIBED

THE FIRST CONVICTION IN HONGKONG, since the outbreak of the war, in respect of breaches of the Sedition, Defence and Incitement to Disaffection Ordinances, was recorded yesterday when an Indian constable of the Hongkong Police Force was found guilty at the Criminal Sessions on four charges and sentenced to 15 months' hard labour.

The accused, Chanan Singh, was charged with the following:—

(1) making preparation to do an act with a seditious intention on June 1;

(2) possession of 88 copies of a seditious publication, namely, pamphlets headed "Revolutionary Proclamation No. 1" and "Revolutionary Proclamation" in Urdu and Punjabi;

(3) possession of an article with a view to making an endeavour to influence public opinion in a manner likely to be prejudicial to defence.

(4) possession of a document which incites to disaffection.

The case was heard by the Chief Justice, Sir Athol MacGregor. The prosecution was conducted by Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, assisted by Sub-Insps. F. W. Fowle.

Messrs. A. A. Pereira, J. H. Simons, B. Chen, G. A. Gutierrez, Leung Pun-san, Cheung Cheuk-kwan and Fung Chun-yin constituted the jury, the first-named being elected foreman.

BUNDLE OF PAPER

Mr. Murphy said that about 10.25 a.m. on June 1, Chanan Singh was seen to go on board the river steamer, Fatshan, at the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company wharf, Connaught Road Central. Ten minutes later he was seen to go ashore carrying a bundle of paper in one hand. A Chinese detective-sergeant and a constable who were not in uniform, approached the accused when opposite the Harbour Office.

Chanan Singh struggled with them and threw the parcel away. The bundle contained 88 copies of a document written in Urdu on one side, and in Punjabi on the other.

The Crown submitted that the accused must be presumed to have intended to distribute these documents.

"At the Magistracy, accused denied he had gone on board the ship or had the bundle in his possession. He also alleged that the charges were the result of a plot against him. He says he left the Central Police Station at 10.15 a.m. and therefore," said Mr. Murphy, "could not be on the ship at 10.25 a.m."

CROWN SUBMISSION

"I submit the accused not only had the documents, but he knew their contents and proof of his guilty knowledge, in my submission, is shown by three things: his struggle with the Chinese police officers, the fact that he threw the papers away as soon as he could, and his statement to the Police when asked to explain about the papers. That statement read: 'I have nothing to say here. Anything I have to say I will say at the Police Court.' He has not there denied having the pamphlets nor suggested he did not know their contents."

"When formally charged, accused said: 'I deny the charge and will give my statement in the Police Court.'"

"You will appreciate the danger of any violent anti-British propaganda at any time, particularly at the present time, when the Empire is engaged in a struggle for its very existence," continued Mr. Murphy. "These documents are not mere propaganda, they invite to mutiny and incite to murder. An offence of this sort, committed at the present time, is obviously of most profound gravity, but I must warn you that you must not let your natural feelings override the proper principles in which you must act in coming to a decision in this case. You must not be prejudiced."

EVIDENCE CALLED

Evidence was given by Det. Sgt. Lai Kwong, Det. Constable Lau Ping and Senior Revenue Officer A. W. Grimmitt, who happened to be passing in a motor car and witnessed the incident.

Detective Lai said he had instructions to watch and arrest the accused.

S. R. O. Grimmitt said he thought the Indian was in trouble and so he stopped with the intention of giving him a hand.

"I saw accused throw a bundle towards the water," said witness. "One of the Chinese picked it up. I tackled the man as I saw he had a revolver, and had him in a stranglehold. He tried to tell me that they were detectives, but I did not believe him at first."

"I asked the Indian why he was arresting the two Chinese, and he replied that they were arresting him. Not long afterwards a Chinese detective that I knew arrived and he told me he had instructions to arrest the accused."

Mr. Grimmitt said the accused was very excited at the time and threw his turban to the ground.

ACCUSED TESTIFIES

In evidence, Chanan Singh maintained that he was innocent. "The charges against me have been brought by false complaints made by someone. On May 25, my property was searched but nothing incriminating was found. This is the fourth time a false accusation has been made against me," he said.

Cross-examined by Mr. Murphy, Singh denied having struggled and being on the wharf.

Do you know what the meaning of these documents is?—How should I know?

Are you an Indian patriot?—No. I put it to you that you intended to distribute those documents?—I never had the bundle. How could I do so?

SENTENCE PASSED

After other police evidence was given, the jury, without retiring, returned unanimous verdicts of guilty on all counts.

Passing sentence, the Chief Justice said: "You have been found guilty on the clearest possible evidence of conduct which at any time is very, very serious—conduct which our Empire finds itself, is more serious than any I can find words for."

"Fortunately, you were caught before you have any opportunity in endeavouring to persuade any others to the same abominable view which you hold."

"The smallest sentence I can give you in a time like this is a term of 15 months' hard labour on the first, second and fourth counts. On the third count, I sentence you to a nominal term of three months' hard labour. The sentences will run concurrently."

Poor Response To Local Recruiting

Response to the local recruiting campaign which started on Monday was authoritatively stated yesterday to be poor. The actual number of British subjects who enlisted has not been divulged.

A notice issued by the military authorities last week stated that British subjects of pure European descent between the ages of 21 and 38 are eligible for enlistment into the regular Army for the duration of the present emergency.

Normal daily rates of pay for non-trade men upon enlistment vary from two shillings for a private and six shillings for a sergeant. Family and dependents allowances are also offered.

Service will be in Hongkong in the first instance, but no guarantee can be given as to the future disposal of persons enlisting.

Application may be made to the Commanding Officer of the unit which the applicant wishes to join or at any of the regular Army barracks.

WHIST DRIVE IN AID OF B.W.O.F. TOMORROW

SOCCKER REFEREES' FUNCTION

The Hongkong Football Referees' Association are holding their monthly Whist Drive at the Hotel Cecil tomorrow night commencing at 8.30 p.m.

This Whist Drive like all future functions, the Association will hold, will be in aid of the B. W. O. F., and, it is hoped, it will be a very great success.

The Referees have given up the idea of building a clubhouse until after the war, and in the meantime will hold their regular Whist Drives to assist in the war effort. Very good prizes are promised, two of which have been kindly presented by Mrs. G. V. Hobbs, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the B. W. O. F.

Mrs. Dove has consented to present the prizes at the conclusion of the drive.

Mr. M. Miniham will be M. C. assisted by Messrs. W. H. Glover, W. H. Foster, E. Baker and G. R. Taylor.

Tickets are $1 each including refreshments and are obtainable from any football referee or at the door.

Net proceeds will be donated to the B. W. O. F. (Ambulance) Fund.

Second Colony Gift To War Effort

The Hongkong Government is to make a second gift of £100,000 ($1,627,119) to the Imperial Government.

The Finance Committee of the Legislative Council will be asked to approve the gift at its meeting, today.

"That this Council approves the gift to His Majesty's Government of a further contribution of £100,000 from the Colony of Hongkong towards the prosecution of the war."

The Memorandum explaining the item states:—

In Finance Message No. 3 of 1940-41, Item No. 40, provision was made for a cash gift of £100,000 ($1,627,119) to His Majesty's Government from revenue accruing from war taxation. It is considered that the present is an opportunity to make a second cash gift of the same amount.

A supplementary vote of $1,627,119 is therefore requested.

Concert For War Funds

The Hongkong Chinese Civil Servants Club will hold a variety concert at the Ko Shing Theatre on Monday, July 1, at 8.30 p.m., under the distinguished patronage of H. E. The Officer administering the Government.

The main item on the programme will be a four-act Chinese historical play in Cantonese entitled "The Heroic Death of a Songstress." There will be musical items between acts. The expenses for the concert will be met by the club, while the entire proceeds will be divided equally between the British War Organization Fund and the British Fund for Relief of Distress in China.

The management of the theatre has very kindly placed the theatre at the disposal of the club for the evening, free of charge.

The play itself was first published only in February last. It has drawn very favourable comments from critics, some of whom have unreservedly classed it among the very best of Chinese plays. Recently it was staged by a commercial troupe in Shanghai, and attracted packed houses for seven consecutive weeks. The play is a very vivid portrayal of the period in Chinese history when the Ming Dynasty was breathing its last, and when the Chinese people were still resisting the forces of the invaders.

The whole story centres round the romantic life of a songstress who preferred death to the rule of the new regime. The customs and costumes of the age make interesting study.

Unregistered Factory In Village

The manager of the Yau Ah Towel Company, situated on Lot 1105 SD4, So Uk Village, Cheung Sha Wan, was summoned before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday for running an unregistered factory.

Defendant, who was represented by Mr. M. W. Lo, was placed on a bond of $50, to come up for judgment should he not have moved the factory to a more suitable site within two months.

Mr. Lo pleaded that his client was a refugee and was not conversant with regulations locally in regard to building. He erected the factory premises and sought to register it with the Protector of Labour. He was referred to the Director of Public Works, and registration was subsequently refused.

Mr. D. W. Phillips, Assistant Inspector of Factories and Workshops, who prosecuted, said that on July 20, 1940, defendant desired to register the premises of the factory, with the Building Authority.

NOT APPROVED

On September 12, 1938, the factory site was not approved by the Health Officer, Kowloon, on ground of sanitation. Following some correspondence between the Public Works Department and the Urban Council, a letter was sent to defendant on March 25, 1939, refusing him registration of the premises and ordering him to clear the site on the order of the Director of Public Works.

Defendant had a petition addressed to the Governor-in-Council with regard to this order, and as a result of this he was granted six months' stay on the order with the provision that he was to find other premises where he could move the factory.

For various reasons, defendant was not able to find such a site. The six months' stay expired on April 4, 1940, when defendant should have ceased business. He had, however, taken no action, and was summoned for running an unregistered factory.

SHAUKIWAN TRAM CARS.

SITUATION IS EXPLAINED

We received a letter from a correspondent, "Season Ticket" yesterday, complaining of the fact that on the previous evening, despite a 45-minute wait, he could not get a tram car down to Shaukiwan as all the cars were packed. He suggested that as the Causeway Bay cars were comparatively empty the Tramway Company should run more Shaukiwan cars and less Causeway Bay ones.

COMPANY'S EXPLANATION

We referred his letter to the Tramway Company who explained that the complaint was useless in that it did not state any definite hour, hence investigation would be impossible.

The statement issued by The Hongkong Tramways, Ltd. continues:—
"Cars proceeding to Causeway Bay from Kennedy Town or White Street undoubtedly unload most of their passengers before arrival at the terminus.

"If your correspondent refers to the rush hours of, say, 4.45—5.45 p.m. it is not in dispute that most cars for Shaukiwan are full on fine hot days. A number of extra "Quarry Bay only" cars are, however, put on for the benefit of the bathing people."

TWO WOMEN FOOLED

Unemployed Gets Imprisonment

Hon Chun-rung, 28, unemployed, appeared before Mr. T. J. Houston at the Central Court yesterday charged two counts of larceny by bailor and was sentenced to four months' hard labour.

Hon was entrusted, for safe keeping, $13, five gold finger rings and a pair of gold earrings, by a married woman, Yip Yuk-lin, and $2 and a finger ring by Lam Fa, another woman.

The complainants arrived here last month and were introduced to the defendant through a friend.

Impressing on them that to possess valuables was dangerous in the present time, Hon managed to induce the women to let him keep the money and articles mentioned in the charges, on the condition that he would return them when asked for.

On June 17, complainants asked for their property, and Hon could not return same as he had converted it to his own use.

Sergt. R. McVey said that Hon also impressed on the complainants that it was hard for them to live in Hongkong without their husbands and hinted that they should marry again.

Hon was also recommended for banishment.

A very quiet wedding took place at St. Teresa's Church yesterday afternoon when Mr. Luis da Luz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bau da Luz, of No. 2, Peace Avenue, Homantin, was married to Miss Elsa Gutierrez, daughter of Mr. Gregorio Gutierrez, of No. 35 Hankow Road.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father A. Granelli and relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The bride looked charming in a white satin gown cut on princess line with a V-neck and wore a long veil held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies.

Her sister, Miss Guilhermina Gutierrez, attended as maid-of-honour and she looked smart in a pink net frock with a very full skirt and wore a bolero coat relieved with a spray of blue flowers also for her hair, and carried a sheaf of pink gladioli.

The bridegroom had Mr. C. J. Treves as best man and Mr. J. da Rosa as groomsmen.

HONGKONG, JUNE 20, 1940.

WHAT WILL THE TERMS BE?

THE TWO GANGSTERS of Europe have met at Munich and discussed the move for peace with France. What will their terms be? According to news emanating from what must be regarded as well-informed circles, the demands which Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini are likely to make from France will most probably be unconditional surrender and the dividing up of the French Fleet and all her Colonial possessions. At the same time it is safe now to assume that the only reply which France will give to these demands will be a categorical "No." Indeed, this attitude can be taken as certain and, in the light of such a reply, it is necessary to emphasize that the reason underlying Marshal Petain's suggestion for an armistice was prompted by purely humane considerations and his real pity for the hordes of refugees, estimated today at over ten million, who were forced to leave their homes. Crowding every road and highway and using every possible means of progression to take them away from the terrors of war, these refugees must, indeed, present a tragic picture that one cannot easily forget. With an utter callousness, the Nazi fanatic and his partner in crime have taken this opportunity to attempt to impose "concentration camp" terms on the whole of the French nation.

LET US TAKE stock of the present position in Europe in order to get a clearer outlook on what is taking place. The cold fact that the French Army has been beaten in France must be faced, but the French Army opposite the Italians is intact and so is the French Navy, which is considered the second most powerful in the world. Apart from this, the French troops in North Africa and in the Middle East, as well as their whole Air Force, still remain effective fighting units. In the event of the Huns occupying the whole of France, the French Navy and Air Force, and even a portion of their army, would still be a useful striking force. The German reply to this will probably be a threat to invade North Africa, but, with the Allies holding the supremacy of the seas, the problem of transporting Nazi and Italian forces would be most formidable. Even if they did get into this territory, they would find it more difficult to extricate themselves. As far as enemy troops in North Africa are concerned, the Italian troops in Libya, for instance, are certainly not up to the standard of the powerful fighting units of the Allies already stationed in that region.

REPORT ALSO HAS it that M. Reynaud, the late French Premier, who strongly opposed any capitulation to the Germans, is now in the United States and will see President Roosevelt. This is significant, in view of the recent decision of the head of the United States to hand over all their factories for the production of aircraft and war material for the Allied forces. The greatest possible assistance can, therefore, be expected from across the Atlantic, barring as the President said,

R.A.F. BOMBER RAIDS IN NORTH GERMANY

Homburg Oil Tanks Set Ablaze: 'Dromes Bombed

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—Details of R.A.F. bomber raids in north-west Germany last night are given in an Air Ministry bulletin.

The bulletin says that military objectives were attacked at Gelsenkirchen, Homburg, Wanneickel, Essen, Dillbergen, Hamburg, Aachen, Duisburg, Rheidt, Cologne and Coblenz.

Strong forces of aircraft made a series of attacks on oil storage centres at Gelsenkirchen, Homburg, Wanneickel.

Many fires were started in Homburg oil tanks, culminating in a great conflagration.

Two fuel installations at Gelsenkirchen were repeatedly hit. Oil tanks were set alight, while buildings, railway lines and junctions were demolished.

Fires were started at Wanne and Bickel.

BIG HAMBURG FIRE

Large oil storage plants at Dillbergen and Hamburg were also attacked.

The flames and fires started at Dillbergen were visible 35 miles away and a great blaze was also started at Hamburg, where one of the largest oil storage plants in north-west Germany was hit. A particularly violent explosion occurred.

Other formations of night raiders attacked marshalling yards and busy railway junctions from Hamm, in the north, to Aachen, in the west, and along the Rhine from Duisburg to Coblenz.

A big fire was started in the midst of a crowded marshalling yard at Hamm.

AERODROME BOMBED

Goods yards at Aachen, Rheidt and Cologne were repeatedly hit and at Coblenz and Essen, main-line tracks as well as marshalling yards were hit.

A series of fires was caused in the centre of the main marshalling yard at Duisburg.

Three aerodromes in Germany where night-flying was progressing were also bombed.

Large fires were started among the aerodrome buildings near Bremen.

Hangers and buildings at the Schiphol aerodrome in Amsterdam were hit and enemy aircraft were machine-gunned and sent headlong to the ground.

Two of our aircraft are missing.

RAIDS OVER ENGLAND

One of these was an elderly woman who died of heart failure.

It is learned in authoritative circles that most of the German planes destroyed in the raid were Heinkel III's.

Final figures are not yet known but there are likely to be several more destroyed in addition to the seven already announced.

One Heinkel was trying to escape and jettisoned 30 small bombs before it was shot down on a beach near Margate. Three of its crew were taken prisoners.

Villagers in Cambridgeshire saw three Germans descend by parachute after their Heinkel were destroyed.

Many other German airmen were made prisoners in Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex and Kent.

100 German Machines

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—It is learned authoritatively that about 100 German machines participated in the East Coast raid during the night.

R.A.F. fighters accounted for five which were brought down and one other is almost certain. A seventh was probably brought down by anti-aircraft fire.

Damage was generally slightest, although bombs were dropped on and down country. The main damage was done in a town where a set of bombs fell into a street where most of the casualties occurred.

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—The Air Ministry announced that "last night R.A.F. fighters shot down two enemy bombers over the north-east coast of France."

Canada Urged To Speed Up "Services"

PREMIER WARNS TO BE PREPARED

OTTAWA, June 19 (Reuter).

Mr. Mackenzie King, urging the speedy adoption of the Government's Compulsory Military Service Bill, told the House of Commons last night, "this is an emergency position of very grave character and no moment should be lost. . . . France lies under the iron heel of Germany."

"Between ourselves and the enemy stands no single country. There is only the North Sea, the English Channel and the Atlantic."

Mr. Mackenzie King asked the House whether it was sure the British Isles only would be attacked. The enemy knew the part Canada is playing and that Britain depended on Canada for food and munitions.

He was certain the Germans would do their utmost to stop that aid from Canada and other parts of the Empire.

He believed in ultimate victory but it would be a very long and sorrowful time before that is reached.

The House later gave the Bill the second reading.

NEW GOVERNMENT NOT LIKED IN FRANCE

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—Reuter's special correspondent with the B.E.F. writes that he has found a widespread feeling that the new French Government may not long continue to receive the support of the French people.

This correspondent has just reached Britain from a port in west France. He writes as follows:

"In talking to French navy officers and civilians during a 300-mile tour from the battle zone to the port of embarkation, I found a very widespread feeling that the new Government might not long continue to receive the support of the French people."

"I gathered that there is a widespread feeling that the Petain regime owes too much to pro-Fascist elements, and that he is divorced from the will of the French people and Parliament."

BERLIN, June 19 (Reuter).—The Munich conference is described by the German News Agency "as proceeding in complete isolation with no sound from the outside world penetrating the Fuehrer's Headquarters."

LABOUR COUNCIL URGES PEOPLE TO BE CALM

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—Following a meeting of the National Council of Labour, held in the House of Commons last evening, a statement was issued.

After paying tribute to the heroic struggle of the people of France against overwhelming odds the statement says:

"A great ordeal now lies before the British people. The full weight of the enemy is now certain to fall upon us. We stand as the last bastion in Europe against the menace of tyranny. Let us meet the test with calm resolution."

The statement describes it as a proud privilege to sustain the hope of civilisation throughout the world in the darkest hour Europe has ever known and says:

"We know that countless millions of subjugated peoples now under the way of the dictators are with us in spirit and only await the opportunity for action."

FULLEST EFFORT

Mr. Mackenzie King reminded the House that Canadian troops were sent to the West Indies to relieve the British garrison there and revealed that other Canadian troops are now also stationed in Newfoundland.

He explained that conscription measure would empower the Government to draft resources and wealth necessary for the prosecution of the war, thereby putting beyond question Canada's effort to the fullest limit of her resources.

CHUNGKING STAYS CALM DESPITE RAIDS

Garden Party Guests Sit By Bomb Crater!

CHUNGKING (By Air Mail).—The bomb-shattered Press Hostel was the scene of a delightful garden party given in the afternoon of June 15, by the residents of the Hostel in honour of Dr. H. H. Kung, Vice-President of the Executive Yuan and concurrently Minister of Finance, says Central News.

Practically all the hosts had narrow escapes in recent air raids. The hostel residents also had trying experiences last month, but no one paid any attention to the huge crater twenty paces in front of the hostel.

The gathering shouted "Welcome, the resurgent!" when Major-General Chu Shih-ming, Director of the Publicity and Intelligence Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, arrived. In the bombing on June 12, his house was demolished.

Fallen timber and debris blocked an underground shelter in which he had Mrs. Chu and their children were caged. Fortunately their faithful servant rushed back from a near-by public dugout and with the help of A.R.P. workers got them out, after they had remained there for thirty minutes.

REV. MCCURDY'S WORK

Rev. W. A. McCurdy was congratulated on his energetic service to the bombing victims. He was seen in almost every raided area, from the suburbs to Kiangpao across the Kialing River, although his own residence and his Methodist Church were badly damaged.

Profound appreciation was shown to Mayor K. C. Wu for his indefatigable efforts in maintaining public utilities, public safety, and supervising emergency and relief activities.

South bank residents related how bravely Chinese airmen battled the bombers. One eye-witness who is a military expert said: "Fifteen fighters plunged right into a large formation of Japanese machines, ignoring the intense machine-gun fire. They got at least two enemy planes, but none of them seemed to have been damaged."

THE VICTIMS

Sympathy was expressed to the guests from the Soviet Embassy, which was severely damaged, to the American missionaries whose heaviest loss was the complete destruction of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in the business section and to Mr. Han Li-wu, Secretary-General of the Board of Directors for the Administration of the British Indemnity Fund, whose premises were partly damaged.

Dr. Wang Chung-hu Minister of Foreign Affairs, was congratulated on the safety of his official residence.

Press Lauds Premier's Speech

LONDON, June 19 (Reuter).—Mr. Winston Churchill's speech is applauded by all sections of the British press this morning.

The Daily Telegraph describes the message as abating not one jot of heart or hope, adding the spirit of the country will respond with a more intense energy and a sterner determination.

The Daily Express hails that it calls a fine, courageous speech with no rhetoric weighing evenly the chances now that we are alone. That is all we want to know. No man and woman in this country expects more. We are sick of being doped.

The Daily Herald says that, coolly surveying the prospects, the Prime Minister gave us reasons for confidently hoping we can beat off an attempted invasion this summer.

While working at the Kowloon Godowns yesterday afternoon a coolie, Ngan Sze-wai, 40, had his left foot run over by a truck. He was sent to the Kowloon Hospital.

Y.W.C.A. CELEBRATION

MOULDING OF A WHOLE GENERATION

Hitler Youth Movement Saddest Example

"You know how a whole generation can be moulded by the training received by the girls and boys. The saddest example of this is the Hitler Youth Movement, by which a whole generation has been trained in hatred and the use of force," declared Mrs. N. L. Smith, wife of His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, when speaking at the 20th anniversary celebration of the Hongkong Young Women's Christian Association held at the Y.W.C.A. headquarters, Bonham Road, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Smith, who was one of the principal speakers of the day, said that in the saddened world of today there was urgent need for all who profess and call themselves Christians to exert all their influence to restore Christian principles to the dealings of nations one with another.

Other main speakers were Dr. (Miss) Catherine Woo, M.B.E., one of the four founders of the Colony's Y.W.C.A., re-elected president, and Miss Pao Swen-teng, Principal of I Fang Girls' School, Changhai. There was a service of thanksgiving preceded by a tea reception.

DR. WOO'S ADDRESS

Dr. Woo presided and after welcoming Mrs. Smith, the Association's Western friends, charter members of the Y.W.C.A., volunteer workers, and all those who had come to join in the service of commemoration, said:

"I welcome you today, not as to a twentieth birthday, as of youth coming of age. Twenty years is a long time in the life of an organization. We are grateful to be able to take up the responsibility and meet the opportunities of this hard period in history, and we are thankful for the maturity and strength that twenty years have given us to meet today."

"This is a sober time for all of us, but a time to be met with courage and high faith in the future. All that is true and noble, all the self-sacrifice and high ideals, can never be lost in our organization nor in our countries that are struggling for life."

MRS. N. L. SMITH

Addressing the gathering, Mrs. Smith said that it was a great pleasure to join in the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Y.W.C.A. in Hongkong, as she would like to be associated with all the Y.W.C.A. stood for and congratulate them on 20 years' good work.

She thought she would like to take the three words naming the association, Young, Women and Christian, and consider with the gathering, how they contain the ideals for which the Association stood.

"Firstly, The word Young, or shall I say youth," continued Mrs. Smith. "It is the aim of this association to have young Members, and to work amongst young people."

"Here in this building, all your young members can meet together for mutual friendship, at social, educational and religious gatherings—I know also, that you undertake to share your knowledge by helping to educate others in your night schools, girls' clubs, and other classes, thereby greatly serving the community and your own generation."

"See to it, that what you hand on is the doctrine of love and service."

DUTY OF WOMEN

"Then the word Women. I should like to emphasize here the duty of all women to be a good influence in their own homes. If you are a good member of the Y.W.C.A., you can also be a good Member of your own family and home."

"There is scope there for so much: scope for the artistic and creative in every woman; for beauty and order in arranging the house, for good sense in economy, for practical knowledge of food values and the preparation of food, and for tenderness and devotion in the care of the health of all in the house. All this is a high privilege which can come the way of most women, as wives, mothers, and sisters, as School teachers, or hospital nurses."

"Lastly, the word Christian. In the saddened world of today, there is urgent need for all who profess and call themselves Christians to exert all their influence to restore Christian principles to the dealings of nations one with another."

Radiating from this association, and this centre could go out an inspiration, which could do much to influence life here in Hongkong, in China, and in the new world which we all hope will soon emerge."

CONSTABLES ON BUSES

Special To H.K. Daily Press

Dear Sir,—I got on a bus (No. 5) at 10.30 a.m. this morning and found the 1st class part nearly full, but the 3rd class compartment was not crowded. In the former there was an Indian Constable and in the latter a Chinese Constable.

When the bus which was running west to east reached Eastern Street, another Chinese Constable, a "Traffic Cop," came up and took the only seat left in the 1st class compartment.

Although several others, including two ladies, boarded the bus later on, none of the constables, Chinese or Indian, gave up their seats. The later arrivals paid their fares out were obliged to hang on to the straps.

Can you enlighten me why policemen in uniforms are allowed to occupy seats in buses to the inconvenience of others who pay their fares?

Is there a rule to the effect that a constable who travels free on a bus should give up his seat when it is required for one paying fare? If so, why does not the conductor enforce the rule?

Yours etc.,

"A TICKET HOLDER."

Hongkong, June 19.

GUIDANCE OF COXSWAINS

"safe" for passage of ocean-going ship but this cannot be extended to small pleasure craft, and it must not be assumed that because a merchant ship is proceeding through a minefield in safety, that small craft can follow her, also in safety.

ANTI-SUBMARINE BOOM

This presents a dangerous obstacle to small craft and they should under no account attempt to pass over it. The gate for small craft is at the eastern end, with a least depth of 10.8' of water at all tides. The main gate, between two Gate vessels, is for the use of ocean-going ships only and they have full right of way in the vicinity of the gate.

PO TAU MUN

This Channel has been blocked by obstructions of a non-explosive nature to a depth of 2' at low water Ordinary Springs. Small craft are free to use it, as and when the tide serves, but they do so entirely at their own risk.

CHU LU KOK

The Channel south of Chu Lu Kok Island may be used by all Hongkong-registered craft at their own risk; but they must keep within 1 mile of Lantau, when within 2 miles east or west of Chu Lu Kok Island, in order to keep well clear of area "A."

RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE

Nothing in the above notes is to be read as involving the Naval authorities in responsibility for any loss or damage resulting from navigating in the approaches to Hongkong, whether in compliance with the above instructions or not. Coxswains and other persons in charge of craft are at all times entirely responsible for the safety of their craft.
